I Run for the Party

Saturday, Sept. 9
Demonbreun & Music Row

If sitting at a bar on Saturday night is just too tame for your blood, you might need to take your drinking to the next level. Participants in the aptly named I Run for the Party fun run/walk will get free booze after huffing and puffing through 3.1 miles — while in costume. Trophies will be awarded, food will be eaten and precious egos may be bruised. Festivities begin at 5:30 p.m.

Registration is $35. For more information, race routes and prize list visit www.irunfortheparty.com.
